

Thoughts on Stewardship

Nov 12, 2017

“Granddaddy Swimming Hole” – Outside Bunker MO on the West Fork of the Black River

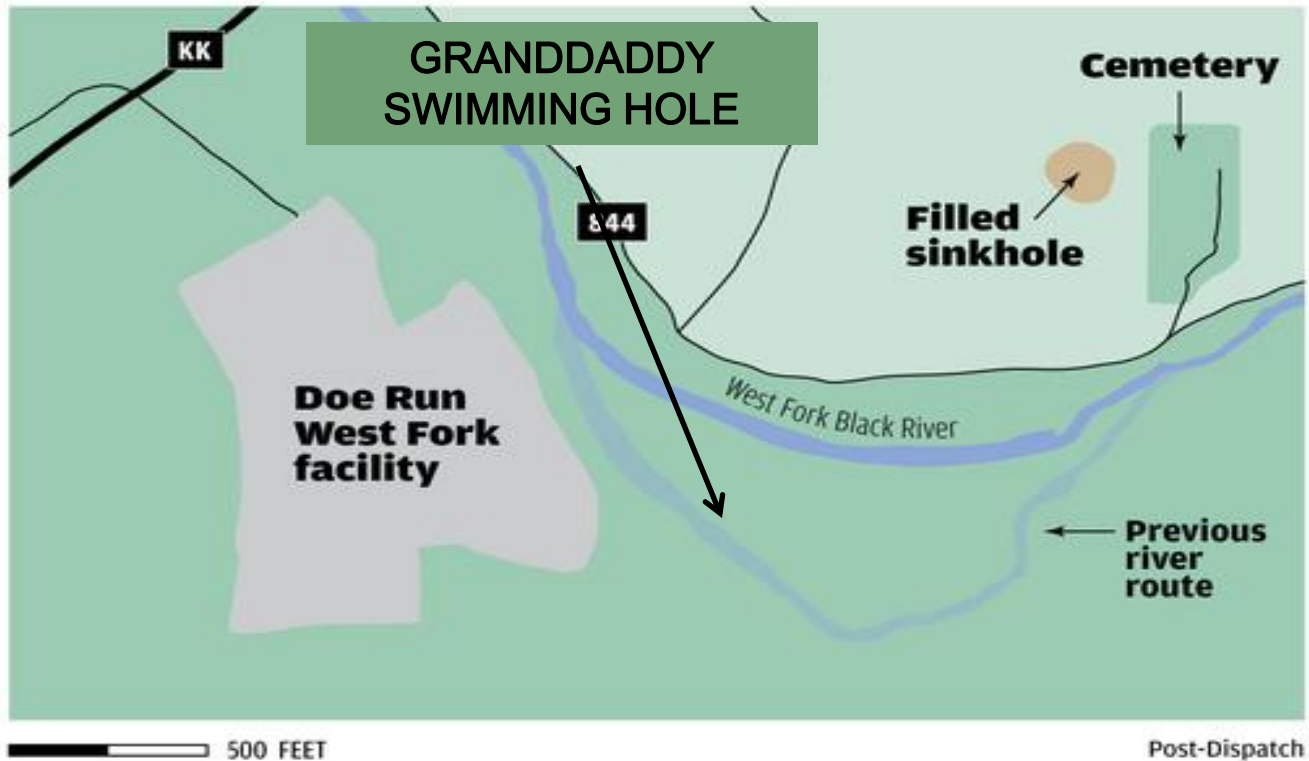

“Sutton’s Bluff” – Outside Centerville MO on the Black River

The Re-Routed West Fork River Channel

THE DOE RUN WEST FORK MINE

Damage last year to Doe Run's West Fork lead mine, east of Bunker in Reynolds County, has caused sinkholes to form and forced the rerouting of the West Fork Black River. Residents are concerned about surface damage, including to a nearby historic cemetery.

The Re-Routed West Fork River Channel

DOE RUN WEST FORK MINE FROM SPACE

